Dear Mr. Bell:

In a letter dated July 30, 1982, you provided your opinion to the following question:

If the Sheriff serves papers which have been signed by a judge of the Family Court at the request of the attorney representing one of the parties to the action, is it proper for the Sheriff to charge and collect a fee for the service of process?

Please be advised that this office, upon review, concurs with your findings as set forth in the referenced letter.

If there is anything further, please advise.

Sincerely,

Charles H. Richardson
Assistant Attorney General
