1 In Re: North Charleston Public Service District

Dear Mr. Jennings:

Your letter of March 15, 1976, inquires whether the North Charleston Public Service District has the legal right or obligation to recognize and/or bargain with a union.

It is my opinion that they have neither the right nor the obligation under the laws of South Carolina. The only case which has been decided in South Carolina is The Medical College of South Carolina v. Drug and Hospital Union Local 1199, et al., decided by Judge Singletary in Charleston on July 9, 1969. The only exception in South Carolina is noted in the opinion and it relates to certain employees of the State Ports Authority who have collective bargaining rights granted them by statute.

With best wishes,
Very truly yours,

Daniel R. McLeod
Attorney General
