Office of the Attorney General

State of South Carolina

September 16, 1976

*1 Honorable Solomon Blatt
Barnwell, South Carolina 29812

Dear Mr. Speaker:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation yesterday, I talked with Mr. Harley Shaw about the status of the town of Windsor in Aiken County. I advised him to contact the Governor's office in order that a special election might be called to elect a municipal governing body which then can proceed to select one of the three forms of municipal government available under Act No. 283 of 1975, the 'home rule' legislation, and to file the ordinance adopting the selected form with the Secretary of State's office.

With kind regards,

Karen LeCraft Henderson
Assistant Attorney General
