1 In Re: Magistrates' Salaries, Greenville County

Honorable Harry A. Chapman, Jr.

Senator

Post Office Box 10167

Greenville, South Carolina 29603

Dear Senator Chapman:

This is in response to several telephone inquiries from your office inquiring about the status of some sort of legal action by this Office to determine the right of Greenville County magistrates to receive the salaries set by the General Assembly.

Shortly after your initial contact with me about this matter, it was turned over to Assistant Attorney General Cam Littlejohn at Mr. Littlejohn's request, since he has been assigned by Attorney General McLeod to be in charge of magistrates' affairs, succeeding Mr. Hutson S. Davis. I am sure that Mr. Littlejohn is working on the case.

In any event, I am asking Mr. Littlejohn to get in touch with you immediately and bring you up to date as to what he has done and what he intends doing.

Sincerely,

Joseph C. Coleman

Deputy Attorney General
