Office of the Attorney General

State of South Carolina

December 29, 1976

*1 Mr. Albert E. Wheless
Attorney at Law
457 Main Street
Ocean Drive Beach Section
North Myrtle Beach, South Carolina 29582

Dear Mr. Wheless:

In reply to your letter dated December 16, 1976, this is to advise that at the present time there is no statute requiring private colleges not involved in teacher certification, correspondence courses or business college instruction to obtain a permit or license from the State of South Carolina. I understand, however, that such a statute may be sought during the forthcoming session of the General Assembly.

Best wishes,

C. Tolbert Goolsby, Jr.
