Dear Mr. Grant:

We are in receipt of your letter of February 6, 1975, in which you requested information concerning how to alter the provision of appointing members to the school board and make this position elective. If an area is presently under a system which authorizes the school board members to be appointed, the statute would have to be changed by the General Assembly to authorize the election of these members.

Very truly yours,

Treva G. Ashworth
Assistant Attorney General
