Office of the Attorney General

State of South Carolina

June 27, 1975

*1 J. M. McLendon, Esquire
Post Office Box 1034
Marion, SC 29571

Dear Mr. McLendon:

Attorney General McLeod has referred to me your letter of June 23 with the attached draft petition for an election under §§ 14-3701 et seq. of the 1962 Code (the home rule law, ratified June 19, 1975). As to the form of the petition, § 14-3701(a) simply states that when such an election is called by petition, 'such petition shall state the question to be proposed.' The petition which you have enclosed appears to set forth adequately the question to be proposed. I am enclosing a copy of an Act passed on June 24, 1975, (R.441) in which a similar statement of the question can be found with respect to a ballot to be used in Aiken County.

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth P. Woodington
Staff Attorney
