Dear Representative Anderson:

You have requested an opinion from this office as to the constitutionality of Bill No. S.910 which provides that law enforcement agencies in Darlington, Florence, Lancaster and Spartanburg Counties shall co-operate with the Alcohol Safety Action Projects conducted in those counties.

We advise that the Bill is, most probably, unconstitutional in view of new Article VIII, Section 7 of the South Carolina Constitution and the holding in Knight v. Salisbury, et al. (Opinion filed June 17, 1974).

With kind regards,

Karen LeCraft Henderson
Assistant Attorney General
