Dear Mr. Stroud:

Thank you for your letter of December 28 inquiring if legislation to change the election date for school trustees would require the approval by the Department of Justice; and, in my opinion, you clearly would like submission to the Department of Justice before being implemented. You inquire with respect to Act No. 295 of 1969, Section 2, and advise that this act was submitted to the Department of Justice on July 8, 1969, and by letter dated August 8, 1969. That Department interposed no objections to that act.

With best wishes.

Cordially,

Daniel R. McLeod
Attorney General
