W. L. Brinkley, Jr.
Vice President for Student Affairs
The College of Charleston
Charleston, South Carolina 29401

Dear Mr. Brinkley:

In the short time I have had available to inspect the New Jersey Code of Laws, I have been unable to locate a law that lowers the age of majority below twenty-one; however, such a law may indeed exist. Since the burden falls on the student pursuant to § 22-2.2(B)(a), Code of Laws of South Carolina as amended, please request the student in question to supply you with a copy of the Act he is relying on, and I will be glad to advise you as to its effect.

Thank you for writing.

Sincerely,

Hardwick Stuart, Jr.
Assistant Attorney General
