Post Office Box 2218

Dear Mr. Todd:

Thank you for your letter of March 30, 1973, inquiring whether the Director of the Charleston County Parks, Recreation and Tourist Commission may serve also as a trustee of a Constituent School District of Charleston County.

I advise that, in my opinion, the Director of the Commission is not an officer, as that office is not provided by the statute creating the Commission. He is therefore in the status of an employee and may hold another position which constitutes an office.

Very truly yours,

Daniel R. McLeod
Attorney General
