30. If one or more Attorneys General reasonably believe that Apple has failed to comply with any term of the injunctive relief, each Attorney General shall provide written notice to Apple, unless the failure to comply threatens the health or safety of the citizens of their state(s) and/or creates an emergency requiring immediate action. Apple shall have sixty (60) days from receipt of such notice to provide a good faith written response, including either a statement that Apple believes it is in full compliance with the relevant provision or a statement explaining how the violation occurred, how it has been addressed or when it will be addressed, and what Apple will do to make sure the violation does not occur again. The Attorney(s) General may agree to provide Apple with more than sixty (60) days to respond. During the sixty (60) day period, each of the Attorney(s) General shall engage in good faith discussions with Apple before taking any enforcement action(s), in an attempt to resolve the alleged non-compliance. If Apple notifies the Attorneys General in writing that two or more Attorneys General have notified Apple of alleged violations, the Attorney(s) General that provided notice of alleged violations shall engage in those good faith discussions collectively if possible.
31. Nothing herein shall be construed to exonerate any contempt or failure to comply with any provision of this Judgment after the date of its entry, or to prevent the South Carolina Attorney General in this action from initiating a proceeding for any contempt or other sanctions for failure to comply, or to compromise the authority of a court to punish as contempt any violation of this Judgment. Further, nothing in paragraph 23 shall be construed to limit the authority of the South Carolina Attorney General in this action to protect the interests of the State of South Carolina.

whichever is later. Said payment to the Office of the South Carolina Attorney General shall be used and designated by and in the sole discretion of the Office of the South Carolina Attorney General and shall be used for reimbursement of attorney fees and other costs of investigation; distribution or application to any applicable consumer protection enforcement funds, including future consumer protection enforcement, consumer education, litigation or local consumer aid, or revolving funds; defraying the costs of the inquiry leading hereto, or any other lawful purpose, at the sole discretion of the Office of the South Carolina Attorney General. The Attorneys General execute this release in their official capacity and release only claims that the Attorneys General have the authority to bring or release. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the ability of the Office of the South Carolina Attorney General to enforce Apple’s obligations under this judgment.
35. Notwithstanding any term of this Judgment, specifically reserved and excluded from the release in paragraph 26 as to any entity or Person, including the Releasees, are any and all of the following:

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 37. The provisions of this Judgment shall be construed in accordance with the laws of South Carolina.
- 38. Nothing in this Judgment shall be construed as an approval by the Attorneys General or any state agency of Apple's past, present, or future conduct.
- 39. Apple shall not represent or imply that the Attorneys General, the State of South Carolina, or any state agency has approved or approves of any of Apple's actions or past, present, or future business practices.

- 41. Apple willingly has entered into this Judgment in order to resolve the Attorney General's claims under SCUTPA as to the matters addressed in this Judgment and thereby avoid significant expense, inconvenience, and uncertainty.
- 42. Apple has entered into this Judgment solely for the purposes of settlement, and nothing contained herein may be taken as or construed to be an admission or concession of any violation of law, rule, or regulation, or of any other matter of fact or law, or of any liability or wrongdoing, all of which Apple expressly denies. No part of this Judgment, including its statements and commitments, shall constitute evidence of any liability, fault, or wrongdoing by Apple. This document and its contents are intended to be used in resolving this litigation and not by any other party or for any other purpose.

43. This Judgment shall not be construed or used as a waiver or limitation of any defense otherwise available to Apple in any other action, or of Apple's right to defend against, or make any agreements in, any private individual action, class claims or suits, or any other governmental or regulatory action relating to the subject matter or terms of this Judgment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the South Carolina Attorney General may file an action to enforce the terms of this Judgment.
44. No part of this Judgment shall create, waive, release or limit a private cause of action or confer any right to any third party for a violation of any state or federal statute..
45. The exclusive right to enforce any violation or breach of this Judgment shall be with the parties to this Judgment and the Court.
46. Nothing in this Judgment constitutes an agreement by the Office of the South Carolina Attorney General concerning the characterization of the amounts paid hereunder for purposes of any proceeding under the Internal Revenue Code or any state tax laws. The Judgment takes no position with regard to the tax consequences of the Judgment with regard to federal, state, local, and foreign taxes.
47. This Judgment is binding upon the Office of the South Carolina Attorney General and Apple, and any of Apple's respective successors, assigns, or other entities or persons otherwise bound by law.
48. Apple agrees that this Judgment does not entitle it to seek or to obtain attorneys' fees as a prevailing party under any statute, regulation, or rule, and Apple further waives any right to attorneys' fees that may arise under such statute, regulation, or rule.
49. If any provision of this judgment is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible by law to effectuate the intent of the parties, and the remainder of this judgment will continue in full force.

50. This Judgment represents the entire agreement between the parties, and there are no representations, agreements, arrangements, or understandings, oral or written, between the parties relating to the subject matter of this Judgment not fully expressed herein or attached hereto.
51. Jurisdiction is retained by the Court for the purpose of enabling any party to the Judgment to apply to the Court at any time for such further orders and directions as may be necessary or appropriate for constructing this Judgment's terms, for modifying any of the injunctive provisions, for enforcing compliance, and for punishing violations, if any.
52. This Judgment becomes effective upon entry, which is ordered forthwith. No notice of entry of judgment is required to be served upon Defendant.
53. This Judgment resolves all outstanding claims expressly identified in the Complaint filed in the above captioned matter. As no further matters remain pending, this is a final judgment.
